PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Xiaoxiao (Sherry) Liu is an associate in the Corporate Law group of Rimon P.C. Ms. Liu holds bar admission in China and New York, allowing both national and international experience. Ms. Liu's work includes transactional matters — business formation, financing, licensing, corporate governance, and mergers and acquisitions — as well as commercial litigation.

Ms. Liu is the founder of a social media interview program, "Lawyers' Stories in the U.S.," in which lawyers, now working in top law firms all over the U.S., discuss their career paths. Published on the largest social media in China, WeChat, the first and second seasons have attracted over 30,000 readers.

While studying at the University of California Hastings College of Law, Ms. Liu also served as research assistant to Professor Frank H. Wu, Chancellor and Dean of Law at U.C. Hastings, aiding research in regard to human rights and democracy in modern U.S. society.

Ms. Liu is passionate about supporting the community and using her expertise to provide change. She currently serves on the executive team of the Chinese American Lawyers of the Bay Area (CALOBA), directing all public relations activity. She also serves as Mandarin, Cantonese and Korean interpreter at the San Francisco Senior Center.
